GK-12 Fellows Program
Graduate School, 516 High Street, Bellingham WA 98225-9037

APPLICATION PROCEDURES
The year 2004-2005 NSF-funded program “Catalysts for Reform: A University-Schools Partnership in Northwest Washington” will select 8 GK-12 Fellows. Fellows will conduct graduate research in science at Western Washington University and will partner with middle school teachers in Whatcom and Skagit counties, Washington. Each Fellow will receive full tuition and a $30,000 stipend for one year of their Masters graduate program in Biology, Chemistry, Environmental Science or Geology. The Program begins mid-July 2006 and continues through June 2007. Women and minorities are strongly encouraged to apply.

Please note:

• You must be a US citizen or permanent resident to be eligible to apply.
• If you are selected as a 2004-2005 GK-12 Fellow, you must be able to commit to participating in the full year program by April 1, 2006.
• If you are selected, you must be able to commit to participating in the "Thinking to Learn" Summer Institute July 10-21, 2006.
• Your Graduate School application materials (including transcripts and letters of recommendation) will be reviewed by the GK-12 Selection Committee members as part of the selection process.

Procedures for new applicants to WWU Graduate Programs
1. New graduate student applicants will submit their Graduate School application to the Graduate School by the deadline of February 1, 2006. Each application must include all materials needed for acceptance into the Biology, Chemistry, Environmental Science or Geology Graduate Programs.
2. In addition to the Graduate School application, the GK-12 application form and supporting materials are submitted together or under separate cover to: GK-12 Fellows Graduate Program, Graduate School, Western Washington University, Bellingham, WA 98225-9037 by February 15, 2006. Supporting materials include:
   a. A statement of interest describing reasons for wanting to participate in the program (1-2 pages). We especially want to know: 1) your background in education, 2) your ideas about education, particularly K-12, 3) your experience working with diverse populations, and 4) how participation will further your career goals.
   b. One letter of recommendation that specifically addresses how you are suited to the GK-12 Program (letter may be sent under separate cover, or submitted in a sealed envelope with the application).
